

WELCOME

If you are a visitor or newcomer, our first hope is that you will experience God's love and care. Our second hope is that you will also experience our love and care. Some of us are shy and quiet. Others of us are bold and outgoing. Yet, in all our ways we want to say: "YOU ARE WELCOME!"

Offering gifts to God's service is an integral part of our worship. Many people at St. Martin's have chosen to make their offering by post-dated cheque or PAR. Others prefer weekly offering envelopes. Visitors and guest should not feel obligated to share in our offering, but if you so desire you may find offering envelopes at the entrance to the sanctuary.

MUSIC

At St. Martin's we are richly blessed by many fine musicians. We encourage you to acknowledge their contributions to worship through silence, or when impelled by the Spirit, through applause.

Passing the Peace

Invitation to Worship & Opening Prayer

In a world fixated on evidence based conclusions
it is difficult to speak of God's Spirit.

God chooses to be known in the heart and lived out in moments of spontaneous compassion and courage.

Today we strive to open our hearts to this Spirit,
to welcome its inspiration,
to risk being known as "fools for Christ."

Fill us with your love, show us how to serve,
for the sake of the world.

Opening Prayer

Come to us yet again, O God.

Do not allow us to be overtaken by cynicism
but immerse us in a hope-filled faith that truly believes in the power of Love,
and risks living that Love into community.

Renew within us the dream of a world shaped by love and peace, by justice and compassion.

For the sake of all, we pray. Amen.

Story Time with Brian

(Children are Welcome to use the table near the sound booth for colouring activities)

Prayer of Reconciliation

We confess that too often we have settled for the status quo rather than living with the imagination of a new world.

We confess that we have allowed narrow visions,
to constrain our thinking.

Discourage us from being ‘simply realistic’
and give us the courage to dream dreams believing that they can come to be.

Helps us to risk security for possibility,
and to set free the radical love that strains against our ‘better judgements’.

Jesus was a dreamer, help us to follow his Way. Amen.

Listening for God’s Word: 2 Corinthians 6:1-13

As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. ²For he says, “At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.” See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! ³We are putting no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry,⁴but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, ⁵beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; ⁶by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, ⁷truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; ⁸in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; ⁹as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; ¹⁰as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything. ¹¹We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. ¹²There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. ¹³In return—I speak as to children—open wide your hearts also.
